Sarah C. Boone is an associate attorney at Marshack Hays LLP. Her practice involves a wide range of business and civil litigation, creditors' rights, and bankruptcy matters. Her bankruptcy law practice often involves representation of Trustees on behalf of secured and unsecured creditors who have claims against individuals and corporations that have filed for bankruptcy, including lenders, landlords, and trade creditors. Ms. Boone's previous litigation experience includes extensive federal securities litigation practice with emphasis on representation of institutional and individual clients in class action lawsuits alleging public companies' violations of the Securities Act and Securities Exchange Act, under the umbrella of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act.

Ms. Boone is admitted to practice law in California and Montana and is admitted to the United States District Courts for the Northern, Central, and Southern Districts of California and the United States District Court for the District of Montana. She is member of the Orange County Bar Association and the San Diego County Bar Association.

Ms. Boone graduated from the University of Southern California in Los Angeles, California with a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy and a Master of Fine Arts in Professional Writing. She received her J.D. in 2007 from Tulane University Law School in New Orleans, Louisiana. ■
